THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 9.

DIED OF STARVATION.—Mrs. C. F. Martin, who keeps a boarding house in Brooklyn, went to the Home for Destitute Children in Sterling place about three weeks ago to get a child who could take care of an infant. Mamie Holland, a bright faced girl of 10, pleased Mrs. Martin's fancy and she took her to her home. The first night Mamie became ill and Mrs. Martin wanted to send her back to the home. The poor child cried bitterly and said she did not want to go back. The child looked half starved, Mrs. Martin says, and she concluded to keep her a few weeks to "feed her up." She grew worse and a doctor was called in. He said the case was serious, and that the child had been half starved. She did not improve, however, with care, and died Monday morning. Mrs. Martin said that Mamie was weak and emaciated and hardly knew what meat was. She gazed in wonder at Mrs. Martin's table when she was spread for dinner. She had never seen a piece of beefsteak. The child told Mrs. Martin that the principal thing the children had to eat at the home was molasses on bread and their milk. The doctor said the child had been greatly reduced by insufficient nourishment, but gave the cause of death as rheumatism of the heart.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle. Wm. F. C. W. & S.
